RE: Havlish et al. v. Usama Bin Laden et al, Civil Action No. 03 MDL 1570/ Civil Action No. 03-CV-9848-GBD

To the Honorable Judge Daniels
Dear Judge Daniels,

I am writing on behalf of my client, Mr. Z, your witness in the aforementioned court case, who wishes to contact you directly on a salient point of this case. He would like to present the court with new evidence which might conflict with facts stated in the related judgement of December 2011.

I am uncertain who all the lawyers are in this case, but I am copying those I do know. It is not my intention or desire to ex parte communicate with the court. I trust this letter can be forwarded to appropriate counsel, and I will certainly copy them on any future correspondence.

Mr. Z would be able to travel to the U.S. to meet you and the lawyers at your earliest convenience to discuss this matter further with you.

Yours sincerely,
